KABUL: Candidates for Afghanistan's April 5 presidential election officially launched their campaigns Sunday with a series of rallies held in Kabul, but it remains to be seen whether the next president will have a closer relationship with the United States than the obstreperous incumbent Hamid Karzai. There are 11 candidates vying to replace Karzai, who cannot run again, reports the BBC. The president has repeatedly held back from signing a security deal that would allow the U.S. military to carry out operations against the Taliban and suspected terrorists in the war-torn country, saying his successor could handle negotiations. The academic Ashraf Ghani, who is running with former Uzbek warlord Gen Abdul Rashid Dostum and ethnic Hazara tribal chieftain Sarwar Danish as vice-presidents, promised at his rally Sunday to bring change. And the candidate Abdullah Abdullah said the world should not be frightened of Afghanistan, and Afghans should not be frightened of the world. "There are actually a number of fairly strong candidates, people who we have worked with very closely in the past," said former Defense Department official David Sedney on PBS on Jan. 27. "And most importantly, the election gives the Afghan people themselves a chance to choose. And then I think we will have a much better chance of moving forward." It's not just the outcome of the election that will shape Afghanistan's future, but also whether voting can be carried out safely. A peaceful election process would set a precedent for future democratic elections with diminished coalition and U.S. involvement. But on Saturday two workers for Abdullah Abdullah were shot and killed in the western city of Herat, and the Taliban has threatened to derail the campaign. Voters expressed anxiety about the safety of the polls, and said it could prevent people from casting ballots. Violence in Afghanistan has continued in recent months, with a recent Taliban attack on a Kabul cafe that served Western clientele killing 21 people.

ISLAMABAD: The Supreme Court (SC) on Thursday observed it was an open violation of the Constitution that the government was not holding local bodies (LB) elections in the cantonment boards. A two-member bench of the apex court comprising Chief Justice Tassaduq Hussain Jilani and Justice Sheikh Azmat Saeed resumed hearing into the local bodies (LB) elections case. The apex court said that LB elections could not be put on the backburner on the pretext of legislation in this regard. The SC asked as to what would be the consequence of any further delay in holding the local bodies (LB) elections in the cantonment boards in terms of Article 140A and as required by the Principles of Policy enshrined in the Constitution (Article 32). The court asked Attorney General Salman Aslam Butt to assist it on the points as to what could be the consequence of any further delay in holding of the LB elections in the cantonment boards in terms of Article 140A and as required by the Principles of Policy enshrined in the Constitution (Article 32). The court further asked the learned attorney general to assist it as to whether the LB elections in cantonment boards could be held under the existing law. The court ruled that the question of contempt against the Ministry of Defence Secretary Asif Yaseen Malik would also be taken up on the next date of hearing. The court observed that the LB elections in the cantonment boards had not been held since 1998 and now the reason being given by the federal government for the delay was that the government was contemplating on amending the Cantonment Act, 1924 and Cantonment Local Government Election Ordinance, 2002. The court also observed that holding of the local government elections was mandated by the Constitution. Earlier, during the hearing, the court asked Additional Attorney General Shah Khawar as to when the elections in cantonment boards would be held. Shah Khawar informed the court that the position on holding elections in the cantonment boards remained the same as an amendment in the laws was still to be made and was under process. He further told the court that a meeting was scheduled under the chair of the minister of defence with all the stakeholders but that meeting could not take place due to an emergency meeting between the minister of defence and prime minister. Meanwhile, the court adjourned the hearing till February 20. The court also issued a notice to the attorney general for February 20 in the case relating to the holding of local bodies elections in Sindh and Punjab.

ISLAMABAD - Chief Justice Tassaduq Hussain Jilani has said conducting Local Bodies (LB) polls in cantonment boards is legal and constitutional obligation of the government and any further delay cannot be allowed on this count. He gave these remarks while presiding over a 2-member Supreme Court bench hearing an appeal filed by the government against high court orders on annulment of delimitation of constituencies in Punjab. "Enough is enough. LB polls have not been held in cantonment boards so far since 1998.... Responsibility for holding LB polls in cantonment boards rests with federal government. Defence secretary is facing contempt of court case for this reason. We will hear this case separately," Justice Jilani said. "Delay in holding elections is breach of law and its consequences will not be good. Government had said it was legislating but legislation has not been enacted so far. People cannot be kept deprived of their rights for long time. Government should tell when it would hold elections," the CJ remarked. "If government cannot make amendment then we will order for conducting LB polls under old and the existing laws. When amendment is made then we will get hold elections afresh under new laws. We have waited for government amendments to all possible limits and we will not allow more delay now. This is legal formality that government should hold LB polls in cantonment boards," the chief judge said. The court observed that holding of LB elections is mandated by the Constitution in terms of Article 140A, as required by the Principles of Policy enshrined in the Article 32, and it asked Attorney General Salman Aslam Butt to assist on the consequence of any further delay in terms of these two articles of the constitution. The court ruled that the question of contempt against Defence Secretary Asif Yaseen Malik would also be taken up on the next date of hearing (February 20). Earlier, during the hearing, Additional Attorney General Shah Khawar informed the court that the position of holding elections in the cantonment areas remains the same as the amendment in the laws is still to be made and was under process. He said a meeting was scheduled under the chair of defence minister with all stakeholders but that meeting could not take place due to emergency meeting of the minister with the prime minister. Government counsel Akram Sheikh said "the reasons of the decision have also come. I have applied for the decision. We will file the reply within next two days. The matters related to delimitations have been declared null and void in two provinces. Then how can the elections be conducted. High court has nullified delimitations in Sindh and Punjab. CJP remarked, "We will serve you notice that you should file reply within a week for providing assistance to us." The court remarked further that these matters include: Firstly, delay in holding polls in cantonment boards leave what impact constitutionally; Secondly, if the federal government can hold LB polls in cantonment boards under the existing laws or not. The court sought reply till Feb 20 from the federal government as to if it was going to hold polls or not, and directed AG to assist it on the above said matters. Election Commission Secretary Ishtiaq Ahmed Khan later told the media outside the court that schedule for local body elections will be announce after completion of the process of delimitation by the provinces.

A groom, on his way to his wedding ceremony, was detained by members of law enforcement agencies late on Saturday, prompting his family members to stage protests for his release, and the Muttahida Qaumi Movement (MQM) demanding his immediate release. Fahad Aziz, who is associated with the MQM, was travelling from his home in Korangi to the wedding in Orangi. The wedding convoy had boarded the Shah Faisal Bridge when members of law enforcement agencies intercepted them and whisked away the groom, and a second MQM worker who was driving his car. The groom's father said that officials arrived in three vans. Some of the personnel were in plainclothes while others were in police uniforms. Concerned police officials, including Shah Faisal SP Ali Asif initially denied any knowledge of the incident. However, later AIG Shahid Hayat admitted that Fahad was in their custody and had been arrested on suspicion of involvement in a number of cases. After the family's attempt to trace whereabouts of the groom proved unsuccessful, they resorted to staging a protest outside the Karachi Press Club. Change biased police command in 24 hours Later, MQM leaders Wasay Jalil and Amir Khan addressed the media outside the press club where they demanded that Fahad should immediately be released and that in 24 hours the top "biased" command of police should be changed. Jalil added that the groom had no outstanding warrants against him, nor had been nominated in any police report. He further revealed that Fahad was an MQM candidate for the upcoming local government elections. The MQM leader further said that they were trying to manage the fresh grief of extrajudicial killing of two of its workers, when this incident occurred. Jalil added that along with Fahad, another MQM worker, Rehan Qureshi, had been taken away by law enforcement agencies. He added that MQM was appealing to President, Prime Minister, Governor, Chief Minister DG Rangers to look into the matter.

CJ vows to decide delimitation of Sindh constituencies on merit

Dawn 17th Feb, 2014

ISLAMABAD: Chief Justice Tassaduq Hussain Jilani on Monday remarked that the Supreme Court would decide the case of delimitation of constituencies in Sindh for the local government polls, in accordance with the Constitution and law. A three-member bench, headed by the chief justice resumed hearing of the case regarding delimitation of constituencies in the province. Last month, the Sindh government had filed an appeal in the apex court against Sindh High Court (SHC) verdict that declared as illegal the fresh delimitations before the upcoming local government polls in the province. Awarding a legal victory to the MQM, the SHC on Dec 30 ruled all amendments made to the local government ordinance unconstitutional, paving way for the polls to be conducted under previous delimitations. During the course of proceedings, counsel for Muttahida Qaumi Movement (MQM) Farogh Naseem appeared before the bench and said that according to constitution a person is entitled to cast only one vote in the municipal elections and delimitation of constituencies were conducted without following the law, terming the Sindh government act illegal. He said that according to the Constitution, only Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) can change the delimitation of constituencies and article 51 of the Constitution stated that the National Assembly seat should be in proportion to the population. On this, Justice Azmat Saeed remarked that seats are available but the proportion of the population has not been published. The MQM lawyer also challenged the matter of delimitation of constituencies through deputy commissioner, adding that there were no guidelines in this regard. Later, the court adjourned the hearing till February 18.

Going green for 'Peace': LG minister promises 0.8m saplings to be planted across K-P

Express Tribune 18th Feb, 2014

PESHAWAR: Minister for Local Government (LG) and Rural Development Inayatullah Khan said around 0.8 million saplings will be planted across the province during an ongoing cleanliness drive titled 'Peace'. That's 32,000 saplings per district. The minister participated by planting an olive plant sapling in Hayatabad on Monday. Inayatullah said when he took oath as a minister, he had promised a clean and green province and he still stands by those words. "We will provide a healthy and pleasant environment for residents." The task cannot be achieved without the participation of educational institutes and civil society, emphasized the LG minister. Media should also play its role to make the drive a success, he added. "People in K-P are confronted with various issues and planting these trees will be a positive activity," greenery is not only essential for humans but for animals too, claimed the minister. Inayatullah said as a result of the drive, the province will be able to produce raw materials for medicine and will be able to spread awareness about medicinal plants and their importance. The LG minister thanked participants who contributed in the drive, "Cleanliness is an integral part of religion." He also appealed to the public to help municipal workers make the drive a success. Meanwhile, Governor Shaukatullah Khan launched the 'Spring Tree Plantation Campaign' for the tribal areas by planting a chir (pine) sapling at Governor House on Monday. Federally Administered Tribal Areas (Fata) Additional Chief Secretary Arbab Muhammad Arif was also present in addition to other senior officials of the FATA Forest Department. It was mentioned on the occasion that 3.5 million saplings of different trees will be planted throughout Fata. Of these, 3 million will be planted by the forest department itself while the rest will be planted by various departments, security forces personnel, students and the public at large.

PESHAWAR: The tripartite alliance of Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP), Jamiat Ulema-e-Islam-Fazl (JUI-F) and Awami National Party (ANP) on Monday urged the government to conduct local government (LG) polls at the earliest. Talking to reporters following a meeting of leaders of the three parties at the residence of PPP senior leader Najumuddin Khan, alliance coordinator Mian Iftikhar Hussain said the tripartite alliance of opposition parties was aimed at giving the ruling coalition a tough time. "It is meant to provide the public with an alternative platform against the ruling alliance," he said. Hussain added the constituent parties were intent on making this partnership a success. The alliance coordinator revealed the three parties have also decided that the alliance will be extended to the district level in preparation for the local bodies' polls. He said in this regard, a tri-party meeting for central provincial districts, including Peshawar, Charsadda, Mardan, Nowshera and Swabi, will be held on February 21 at the residence of PPP leader Iftikhar Jhagra in Peshawar. On February 24, party leaders from Malakand division will meet at Chakdara; Hazara division leaders will convene in Abbottabad on February 26; and on March 1, a meeting for southern districts of K-P will take place in Bannu. Mian Iftikhar said the constituent parties have also agreed to retain the alliance for by-elections. The ANP leader added that political parties had given their mandate to the government at the time of the all-parties conference. Iftikhar claimed that terrorism-related incidents will not be tolerated simultaneously with the process of dialogue, claiming the government has failed to control the situation. He also criticised the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) – led government, saying it was pushing the province to a civil war like situation by neglecting its duties. He proposed that a search operation should be carried out in the city before sealing the city to ward off terrorist threats. PPP Provincial President Khanzada Khan, General Secretary Humayan Khan, former K-P assembly speaker Kiramattullah Khan, Najmuddin Khan, Rahimdad Khan, JUI-F deputy amir Maulana Attaur Rehman, Senator Ghulam Ali and ANP's Syed Aqil Shah were also present at the occasion.

ISLAMABAD: The Supreme Court (SC) on Wednesday warned the federal government to appoint the chief election commissioner (CEC) within a month or the court would issue the orders in this regard. The court, while taking notice of non-appointment of a regular CEC, Federal Services Tribunals chairman and members sought a report from the government within a week in this regard. A two-member SC bench comprising Justice Mian Saqib Nisar and Justice Afzal Khan took up the case with reference to the appointment of Ghulam Rasul, an ISI Grade-16 employee, here on Wednesday. Justice Mian Saqib Nisar remarked, "The government is not discharging its legal and constitutional obligations due to which regular officers have not been appointed so far against legal and constitutional posts." He further observed, "For want of regular Chief Election Commissioner (CEC), Justice Nasirul Mulk has to go to the Election Commission by leaving the most important cases of Supreme Court (SC). The appointment of acting CEC is temporary. A regular CEC has not been appointed for the last six months. Thousands of cases are pending owing to non induction of chairman and members in FST. Rush of cases has increased in high courts." He further remarked, "It is better the government should discharge its obligations or we will be forced to issue any order. The government should not create difficulties for us and for itself." At the inception of the hearing, the Attorney General (AG) Suleman Butt, parliamentary secretary and others appeared before the court. Justice Saqib Nisar remarked, "Only you can deal with this matter. The FST is not functional as per the SC's 2013 decision. Several cases are pending hearing in high courts and this situation is alarming. It is said that the respective forum which the law has given is not there. The tribunal does not exist under Article 212. Ascertain from the government when will these tribunals be constituted. When will the amendment be introduced in the Constitution? The government is not addressing several important legal matters. It causes embarrassment to us particularly. Fakharuddin G Ebrahim resigned from his office in August. Six months have passed but a regular CEC has not been appointed. The acting CEC is for a short period. We are giving one month's time to the government. Does the government want to discharge its legal and constitutional obligations or should we issue any order?" The AG said that work had been started and the appointment would be made soon. Justice Saqib remarked, "Soon means too much time will be spent on it. We have talked on several constitutional violations. But this is the biggest violation. Give us the report and timeframe." The AG said that the appointments were being made in line with the decision of Khawaja Asif case. It was the government's endeavour that such problems should not be created. Later, the court adjourned the hearing till March, 4.

ISLAMABAD: The Election Commission of Pakistan must take immediate and effective measures to address critical discrepancies in voter registration especially of women voters, timely finalisation and discrepancies in general elections 2013, recommends removing them

Express Tribune 21st Feb, 2014

adherence to polling schemes and consolidation of results to improve the quality, legitimacy, transparency and effectiveness of elections, the Free and Fair Election Network (FAFEN) said on Friday. In press release issued on Friday, the network put forth its recommendations on the basis of findings compiled in its first detailed report titled "National Assembly Election Result Analysis" based on data gathered through citizens' observation of General Elections 2013 and Election Commission of Pakistan's (ECP) official documents. Parallel Vote Tabulation (PVT), turnout trends, voting patterns and an in-depth analysis performance of political parties, are the key features of this report, which analyses the results of 266 out of 272 National Assembly constituencies. FAFEN claimed that the issue of voter registration is of primary concern as the number of registered voters in general elections 2013 decreased in 100 NA constituencies compared to the general elections 2008 despite a considerable increase in the issuance of computerised national identity cards (CNICs). The under-registration of women voters continued to undermine universal suffrage, equal representation and their constitutionally-promised measures to enhance participation of women in national life. Of the 86.2 million voters, 43.6% were women compared to 80 million voters in 2008 with 44% women voters. The finalisation of polling scheme by the ECP two weeks before the election day is a legal requirement and it cannot be changed by the returning officers (ROs) without prior permission of the ECP and a subsequent notification to that effect. FAFEN found that the number of registered voters in 93 NA constituencies was recorded differently in final polling scheme, election results accruing an absolute discrepancy of 246,858 voters. The distribution of constituencies showing voter discrepancy is significantly skewed across the regions with Punjab leading with 57 of the 93 NA constituencies showing a difference of voters between the final polling scheme and result Form XVII. Khyber Pakhtunkhwa has 16 such constituencies, followed by Sindh (15), FATA (4) and ICT (1). Of the total of 246,858 votes in question, Punjab accounts for 233,225 (94.5%), Khyber-Pakhtunkhwa 6,462 (2.6%), Sindh 6,317 (2.6%), FATA 580 (0.2%) and ICT 274 (0.1%). It is a serious question to the transparency of the elections and the ECP must look into this matter and ensure that the polling scheme is not changed after the stipulated time in order to protect the rights of the voters. The result consolidation process which includes ballot count, vote count, consolidation and finalisation of results must be transparent for the fairness of the elections and the ECP must release election results along with Form XIV (Statement of the Count), Form XV (Ballot Paper Account), Form XVI (Consolidation of Statement of the Results of the Count) and Form XVII (Result of the Count) for electoral transparency. The need is further reinforced by the fact that Form XVII published on the ECP website following the elections did not mention the number of rejected votes while the gazette notification of returned candidates did not record the number of registered voters. The ECP should hold the election officials responsible for consolidation, finalization and certification of results with discrepancies and stern action should be taken against them so that such irregularities could be checked in the future elections. The disproportionate and significant increase in the number of rejected votes emerged as one of the major discrepancy – the number increasing from 775,720 in 2002 to 973,694 in 2008 and further increasing to 1,502,717 in 2013 – an increase of 64% compared to 2008 elections. The issue is critical not merely due to the numbers but also given the skewed distribution across constituencies and regions – the numbers range from 0 in NA-53 to 25,908 in NA-266. From the results' perspective, the issue is highlighted further by the fact that the number of rejected votes exceeds the margin of victory in 35 of the 266 constituencies analysed in this report. The report's analysis of turnout trends in the 266 constituencies highlights an encouraging trend while the overall turnout was recorded at 54.7% (+/- 0.03%), a substantial increase, vis-à-vis 2008, across urban as well as rural areas bodes well for the legitimacy and public trust in the democratic system. The urban constituencies registered a substantial increase in turnout by 17%, followed by majority urban and predominantly urban constituencies seeing an increase of 13.2% and 12.8%, respectively. The predominantly rural constituencies witnessed an increase of 10.9% while majority rural constituencies showed an increase of 10.6%. The 2013 elections witnessed returns for parties that varied across regions and provinces. While Sindh largely produced similar results – PPPP dominated rural Sindh while MQM urban areas, particularly Karachi – the other provinces underwent a significant change. PML-N and PTI were the largest beneficiaries of the change in Punjab and Khyber-Pakhtunkhwa while Pakhtun and Baloch nationalist parties made a strong comeback in Balochistan. Among the religious parties, JUI – while far from the overwhelming performance of MMA – secured significant votes and seats in both Khyber-Pakhtunkhwa and Balochistan. For the 2013 elections, a total of 4,462 contestants vied for the 266 constituencies covered in this report. PTI fielded the most candidates, competing from 230 constituencies, followed by PPPP (227), PML-N (215) and MQM (207). Independent candidates constituted the largest group with 2,343 while other parties fielded a total of 1,240 candidates cumulatively. From the perspective of gender representation and participation, the elections had the most female candidates (161) compared to the number of female candidates in the previous two elections – 75 and 61 candidates contested in 2008 and 2002 elections, respectively. Most – 123 of the 161 – contested either as independent candidates (95) or from the platform of smaller/regional parties (28). Among the mainstream parties, PPPP awarded tickets to 15 females, followed by MQM, PML-N, PTI, and PML with 8, 7, 6 and 2 candidates respectively. Of the 161 women contestants, only 6 were successful in winning their seats in the 2013 elections compared to 16 and 13 successful female candidates for the 2008 and 2002 general elections, respectively. FAFEN recommends the Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) to remove discrepancies in voter registration, finalisation of polling schemes and consolidation of results. These steps are very crucial for credible and transparent elections which enhance citizens' trust in democratic processes and can lead to accountable, transparent and efficient governance in the country.

LAHORE: Lawyers in five divisions of the province have decided to boycott the Lahore High Court Bar Association (LHCBA) elections scheduled on February 22, The Express Tribune has learnt. They are protesting the lack of Lahore lawyers's support for demand for benches of the Lahore High Court in their areas. Lawyers of Faisalabad, ujrana, Sahiwal, Sargodha and Dera Ghazi Khan have decided against voting in the upcoming elections of the LHCBA. An inter-division committee of the lawyers association decided last week they would take action against any lawyers they participated in the elections. Tanveerur Rehman Randhawa, president of the Faisalabad Bar Association and the head of the inter-division committee (IDC), told The Express Tribune that the LHCBA representatives had "cheated" by not supporting the establishment of LHC benches in five divisions. He said a lawyer from Bhakkar had to spend three days to attend a single hearing at the Lahore High Court under the current arrangement. He said it often became too expensive for lawyers from these divisions to travel to Lahore and stay for court proceedings. He said the litigants also had to travel long distances to attend court proceedings. He said if LHC benches, like those in Multan, Rawalpindi, and Bahawalpur, had been setup in Faisalabad, Gujranwala, Sahiwal, Sargodha and DG Khan, many problems faced by litigants and lawyers would have been resolved. He said the burden on the principle seat of the LHC would also be reduced. He said the lack LHCBA support in this regard had been disappointing. The LHCBA general house meeting, under its president Abid Saqi, had also passed a resolution against the proposal to setup new LHC benches. Randhawa said instead of helping them, the LHCBA had sabotaged their campaign by passing the resolution. He said in a meeting of the IDC, lawyers had decided not to participate in the elections and urged the bar association to take disciplinary action against their members if they cast their vote. Shafqat Mahmood Chohan, a presidential candidate for the LHCBA, said some lawyers were trying to sabotage the elections. He said most lawyers would still participate in the elections. He said he had arranged for pick-and-drop facilities for lawyers of all parts of the province. He said if elected, he would not oppose establishment of the new benches. He also said, however, that he would also not join the campaign. The number of voting members of the LHCBA has dropped by 1,628 over last year even after registration of 1,138 new voters. Last year, there were 18,895 voting members of the LHCBA. This year, the number is 17,267. As many as 6,280 lawyers have not paid their vote renewal dues.

Grassroots democracy: 'Local government polls necessary to facilitate masses'

Express Tribune 21st Feb, 2014

LAHORE: Several members of the provincial assembly on Thursday called for holding local government elections as soon as possible so as to mitigate administrative problems. They were talking at a consultative session titled Transparent and Accountable Local Government System in the Punjab organised by the Institute of Social and Policy Sciences (I-SAPS) in collaboration with Citizen Voice Project of the USAID. Lawmakers representing the Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz (PML-N), the Pakistan Tehreek-i-Insaf (PTI) and the Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) said holding of local government elections and devolving powers to the grassroots level would serve the people. MPAs Abdul Rauf Mughal, Chaudhary Rafaqat Hussain, Begum Nasreen Nawaz, Salma Shaheen Butt, Rukhsana Kausar, Farzana Butt and Naseem Bano represented the PML-N. Mughal said the Punjab Local Government Act 2013 was a manifestation of political of the PML-N to hold fair and transparent local government elections. He said a special committee of the provincial assembly had consulted opposition parties, members of the civil society, the legal fraternity and the media before approving the bill. PTI's Ahmad Khan Bhachar, Mian Aslam Iqbal and PPP's Khuram Jahangir Wattoo criticised the delay in holding the polls. They said the ruling party was not interested in devolving power to the grassroot level. "The inordinate delay for one or the other excuse is regrettable," Bhachar said. He also said the government should immediately hold a census. Earlier, Muhammad Naem Sidhu, a research fellow of the I-SAPS, gave a presentation on the issue of local governments. He said to ensure transparency, accountability and appropriate delivery of services at the doorsteps of common man, holding fair and free local government election was of immense significance.

SC seeks Punjab govt's fresh stance on LG polls

The Nation 21st Feb, 2014

ISLAMABAD - The Supreme Court Thursday ordered the Advocate General Punjab to inform today whether the Punjab government is interested in challenging the Lahore High Court judgment regarding Local Government polls. A three-member bench, headed by Chief Justice Tassaduq Hussain Jilani, hearing the local government elections case also directed the Sindh government counsel to provide the copy of Charter of Democracy, signed by PML-N leader and incumbent Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif and Benazir Bhutto in 2006 in London. During the proceedings, Khawaja Haris, amicus curiae, argued the provincial governments have to frame the Local Government Institutions laws, while the Election Commission of Pakistan has to carry out the delimitation process. Khawaja Haris said right to vote is more important than the fundamental rights, because it was the basis of constitution and the democracy. The amicus further contended that Article 140A of the Constitution was about local bodies system and according to that it was the responsibility of the provincial government to frame laws for the local bodies' institutions and ECP was empowered to carry out the delimitation of the constituencies. He said the election process starts with the notification of election schedule, but in 1973 Constitution the words 'holding of elections' have been used, which included the process from preparation of voter lists and the delimitation. The bench inquired what was the purpose of inserting Article 140A in the Constitution? Khawaja Haris stated to make sure the local bodies elections are held in transparent manner, as before that the LB elections held were dissatisfactory. The chief justice questioned as to whether the political parties did not trust each other, therefore, Article 140A was inserted in the constitution. The CJP further asked whether this LB system was the part of Charter of Democracy. The learned counsel said he thinks it was but not quite sure about it. The bench then put that question to Farooq H Naek, the counsel Sindh government. He replied that it was the part of Charter of Democracy. The court therefore directed him to provide the copy of CoD on Friday. Khawaja Haris further argued that the local bodies institutions had financial power, but it's control was with the provincial governments. But now the local bodies' institutions have been given full financial power and they could spend funds without getting dictation from the provincial governments. He said the delimitation process was very important in LB polls because any error in that could not be rectified later on, which is against the spirit of transparent polls. Justice Sheikh Azmat Saeed remarked if it was accepted that the election process commences with the announcement of election schedule then all the provisions regarding preparation of voter lists would be unconstitutional as the voter lists are prepared before the elections. He questioned if the voter lists were part of election then why delimitation couldn't be part of election process. These two are interlinked therefore either they have to be excluded or include in the constitution. Khawaja Haris concluded his arguments, while Makhdoom Ali Khan, another amicus curiae, had already completed his arguments on Thursday. Advocate General Punjab Mustafa Ramday informed the court that the Lahore High Court had passed two orders regarding local bodies polls. He said the Punjab government had accepted the LHC first order, while have objections on certain portions of the LHC second order. The court inquired, why the Punjab government had not challenged the LHC orders? Mustafa Ramday replied that it had already been challenged by Azhar Siddique. Justice Azmat asked whether the Punjab government was relying on Azhar Siddique. The advocate general Punjab told that after taking instruction from the provincial government he would inform the court about it. Upon that Justice Azmat Saeed remarked that they know why the Punjab government was not challenging the LHC orders. Mustafa Ramday stated the provincial leadership was in China. The court asked him to take the instruction from the Punjab government and inform on Friday.

PESHAWAR: As the Federally Administered Tribal Areas (Fata) is once again the focus of military reprisals against the Taliban, representatives of different segments of the society gathered around a table in a plush hotel here to debate the prospects of holding local government elections in the tribal region. They acknowledged there were several stumbling blocks, but insisted they should not provide excuses to the federal government to keep the already deprived region without local government system. There was consensus that the 2002 local government system, with some fine-tuning, should be introduced to Fata, a region ravaged by a 12-year-old militancy and military operations. The participants warned the government that the situation in Fata could worsen if polls for local governments were not held there. "The Fata region was not brought into the mainstream despite pledges from the political parties. This created administrative and judicial vacuum that was filled by the Taliban," said Ashraf Ali of the Fata Research Centre. He said it would be disastrous to prolong exclusion of tribal people from the political process and urged the Pakistan Muslim League-Nawaz government to conduct polls for local governments in the region. The government has been wrestling with a number of problems in Fata and calls for holding local bodies' elections seem unlikely to catch attention of the authorities. Currently, the government is preoccupied with thoughts how to dismantle the Taliban safe havens in this borderland that is believed to be supplying terrorism to the rest of the country. Jetfighters and gunship helicopters targeted suspected locations of militants in different tribal agencies over the last several days to punish militants for carrying out a spree of terror that killed dozens of people. However, participants of the roundtable insisted that fight against terrorism should not be used as an excuse to avoid elections for local governments. "Law and order situation should not provide justifications to the government to not hold local bodies' elections," Ashraf Ali said, briefing the media after the event. "We believe that if elections for the National Assembly could be held, conducting local government polls should not be a problem," he added. Engineer Toor Gul Chamkani, Sheikh Jehanzada, Brig (r) Said Nazeer, Mufti Hanif, Sakeena Rehman and Ikramullah Kukikhel were some of the participants. Ashraf Ali said his organisation held the event to generate a debate on local government system in the tribal areas. He said it was part of a series of events aimed at pressuring the government to take steps for holding the elections. The Frontier Crimes Regulation (FCR), a special set of laws that administer the tribal areas, is also an obstacle in putting in place the local government system in Fata. The FCR concentrates all the administrative, judicial and financial powers in the office of the political agent, undermining the role of the elected leaders at the grassroots level. But Ashraf Ali said that though the FCR needed more amendments to make it compatible with rights and wishes of the people, it still didn't impede holding the elections. "Election could be held under the FCR, though it needs changes," he said. Sheikh Jehanzada from Bajaur said political system in Fata would take roots after local government elections. He said the impression about tribesmen that they did not want to change the system was wrong. "We even want to change the name of PA," he said, pointing to the point that how they were sick of the system controlled by political agent. "If we hold elections, we would be able to sort out flaws in the system," Brig (R) Said Nazeer said. Ashraf Ali said the roundtable discussed three main questions: a) should local government elections be held in Fata? b) What could be its structure? and c) What could be qualification for the public representatives? He said there was a consensus among the participants that the local government elections should be held without delay. They recommended that the local government system in Fata should have three tiers-union council, tehsil council and agency council. He said the participants suggested the office of the PA should surrender judicial and financial powers to local governments and could share administrative powers with elected representatives. He deplored that at a time when all provinces of the country were abuzz with talks of holding elections for local government, there was no word from the offices of the prime minister and president about the polls in Fata. He said almost all political parties had promised in their election manifestos to mainstream Fata, but they were hardly doing anything to bring the region into political mainstream.

Beware of opinion polls

Express Tribune
February 9, 2014

I have always been rather suspicious of opinion polls. The business of fashioning truly effective survey questions is not easy. Sampling errors is a built-in and unavoidable feature of all popular polls. Many of the surveys and much of the market research that is conducted appears to have a hidden agenda and distinct purpose in mind, such as the endorsement of a particular electoral candidate or the promotion of a certain product at the expense of others.

At times, conclusions involve deliberate distortion; and on occasion can result in totally incorrect forecasts. A classic example of this is the predictions culled from surveys conducted during the election of Franklin Delano Roosevelt (FDR), who became the 32nd president of the United States and the only US president to ever serve for more than eight years in office. A section of the US press, which was by and large against him and which played an important role in moulding public opinion, had pointed out that FDR was trailing in the contest, and yet, he won with a comfortable majority. In 1992, there was the famous example of a huge margin of error in the UK general election. Two exit polls predicted a hung parliament when, in fact, John Major maintained his position with a significantly reduced majority.

There have also been occasional examples of gross misreporting, as happened in the case of the presidential candidate Harry S Truman. According to the November 3, 1948 issue of the Chicago Tribune, Truman had lost the presidential race to the Republican governor of New York, Thomas E Dewey. The pronouncement achieved a measure of notoriety for inaccurate reporting. After he was elected, Truman flashed the newspaper to a cheering public at a stop at St Louis railway station. It was a moment that he relished. On the very same date, The Journal of Commerce went as far as to print eight articles, which focused on what the public expected of Dewey. Closer to home, there was the questionable research conducted during the last election where one local organisation predicted a close contest between the PML-N and the PPP, while another forecast pointed to a neck-and-neck challenge between Nawaz Sharif and Imran Khan.

At times, forecasters have enlisted the cooperation of the famous parrot, while in India, the faithful have been relying on the predictions of the astrologers.

Now for a bit of trivia and frivolity. Addicts with computers surf the net for lists of the 10 best of this or that. In my case, it is symphony conductors, classic films, Renaissance art and holiday resorts east of Myanmar. I avoid popularity lists in which researchers manage to elicit astonishingly revealing confidences, while imparting a sort of editorial semaphore of irony and disbelief. A case in point is the one which was reported in The Express Tribune in its January 3 issue, which carried the startling headline "Ash voted 4th most beautiful woman in the world with Monica Belluci in the first position". Since the popularity contest conducted by Hollywood Buzz is totally subjective and arbitrary, and based on pure choice, I don't think one should take the matter too seriously. But it did raise a couple of queries in my mind. Why do people who organise and take part in these frivolous contests assume that one has to be an actress to be considered beautiful? And surely, in a country with a population of well over a billion people, there must be at least a hundred women who are not actresses, models or debutantes who are better looking than Aishwarya Rai.

Local bodies and delays

Express Tribune
February 26 , 2014

Democracy, it is often said, works best when power is delegated to citizens at the grassroots level. With sufficient resources at their command, local communities can decide and implement development schemes and tackle civic matters through their elected representatives, leaving the higher tiers of government to focus on the bigger picture. Which is where the virtue of local governments lies. Unfortunately, the provincial governments in Pakistan — so goes the popular belief — do not want to cede power to the local representatives. What else explains the non-existence of local bodies (LB) in Balochistan nine months after the general elections? Balochistan, despite being the only province to hold the LB polls and win plaudits for it by one and all, has also not moved further towards consummating the exercise since the December 7 vote. To be fair to Balochistan, it gave an excellent account of itself by conducting the first leg of LB elections. But this exercise will obviously prove to be futile if the local governments are not put in place and start functioning. The vibes are not encouraging in this matter.

A report in this paper notes how the buck is being passed between the provincial government and the provincial election authority on who is to blame for the inordinate delay in the next phase of the exercise. In the third and second-last leg of the electoral drill, candidates were to be elected for the 33 per cent of the seats allocated for women and the 15 per cent allotted to various interest groups. Legislation also needed to be done before mayors and municipal, district and union councils could be installed. But things appear to be in a state of limbo, for now. If Balochistan succeeds in bringing the electoral process to its logical conclusion, it will have blazed a trail which will be difficult for other provinces to ignore. Both the provincial and electoral authorities need to work in tandem to remove irritants blocking the way of further progress in this connection. Likewise, the politicians holding reins of other provinces should also stop foot-dragging on the matter and hold the LB polls in fulfillment of their campaign promises.

Battle lines in India's polls

Express Tribune
February 22, 2014

The wheels of the great Indian democracy are churning with increasing rapidity as the elections draw near. Parliament has become a theatre for realpolitik, as political parties use every issue to strike a run insofar as their electoral prospects are concerned. The distinction between the batting and bowling sides has become blurred, as everyone seems to have become a fielder rushing around for the ball that remains elusive.

So there was all the mayhem over Telangana that has finally been created even as the political parties count the seats they can get from the fracas. To be fair though, there has been an ideological for and against position, with the regional parties, in particular, very clear about their positions. The BJP and the Congress, of course, confused the issue as much as they could, took sides that they retracted from, and eventually came together to support the bifurcation of Andhra Pradesh in parliament.

There is a certain, and now growing, sense in India that the BJP and the Congress work best together. They have the same economic and foreign policies, they differ only slightly on domestic issues, and by and large, appear to be natural partners who like to remain on opposite sides so that the opposition space is not occupied entirely by the regional parties. There have been several instances in the past when the two have come together to bail each other out of tough situations inside parliament, and their leaders are the first to admit that when they are in serious trouble in the legislature, they first look at each other for help.

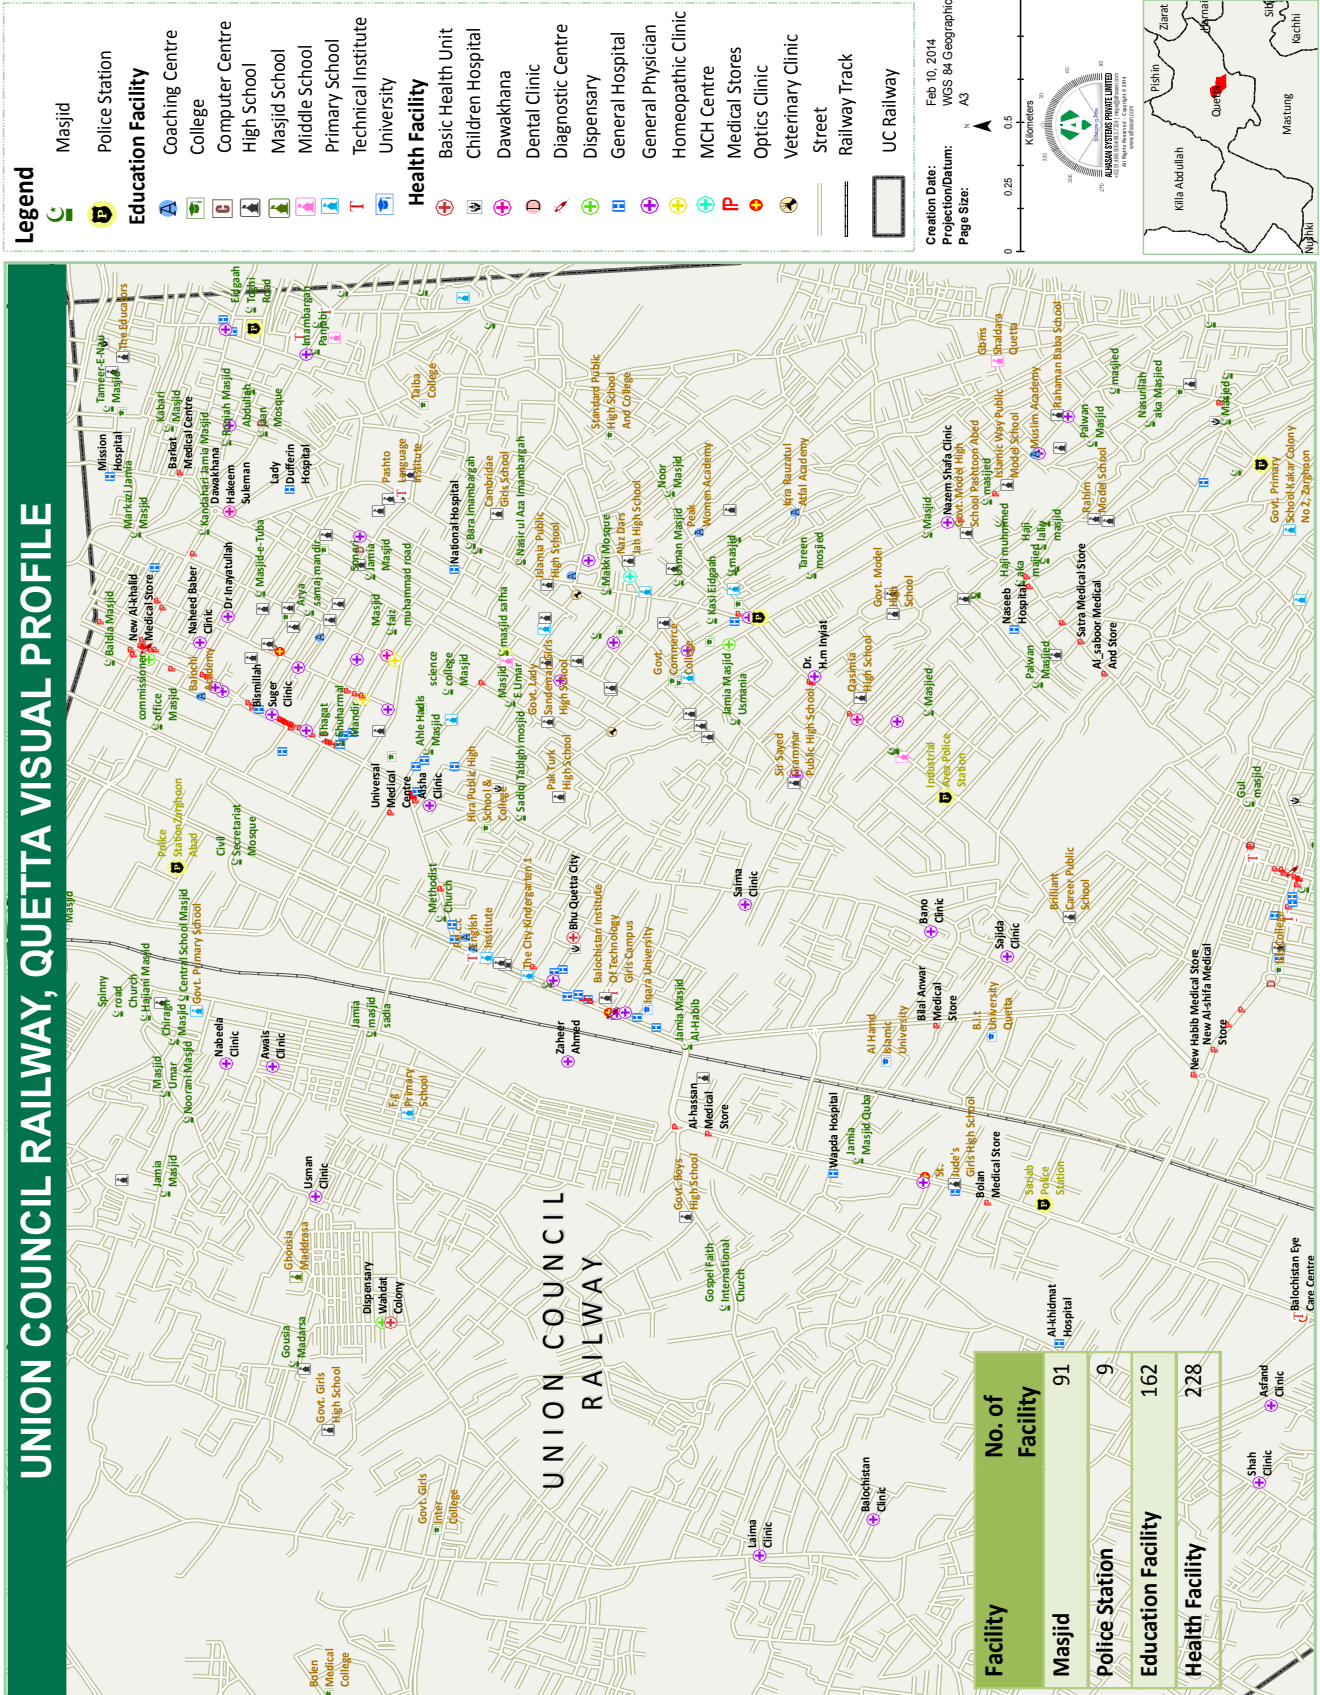

Before almost every election, there is a whisper campaign about a national government of both the BJP and the Congress and others who care to join them, so as to get over a fractured mandate reality, and give what the middle class loves: a 'stable' government wedded together in anti-poor policies. This time, too, the rumour can be heard in the political corridors with even a prime ministerial candidate to head the so-called national government, namely the current President of India, Pranab Mukherjee, who is acceptable to both the Congress (or, at least, sections of it) and the BJP. This will not happen but this has become a fond hope of many in the BJP and the Congress, and their supportive elite.

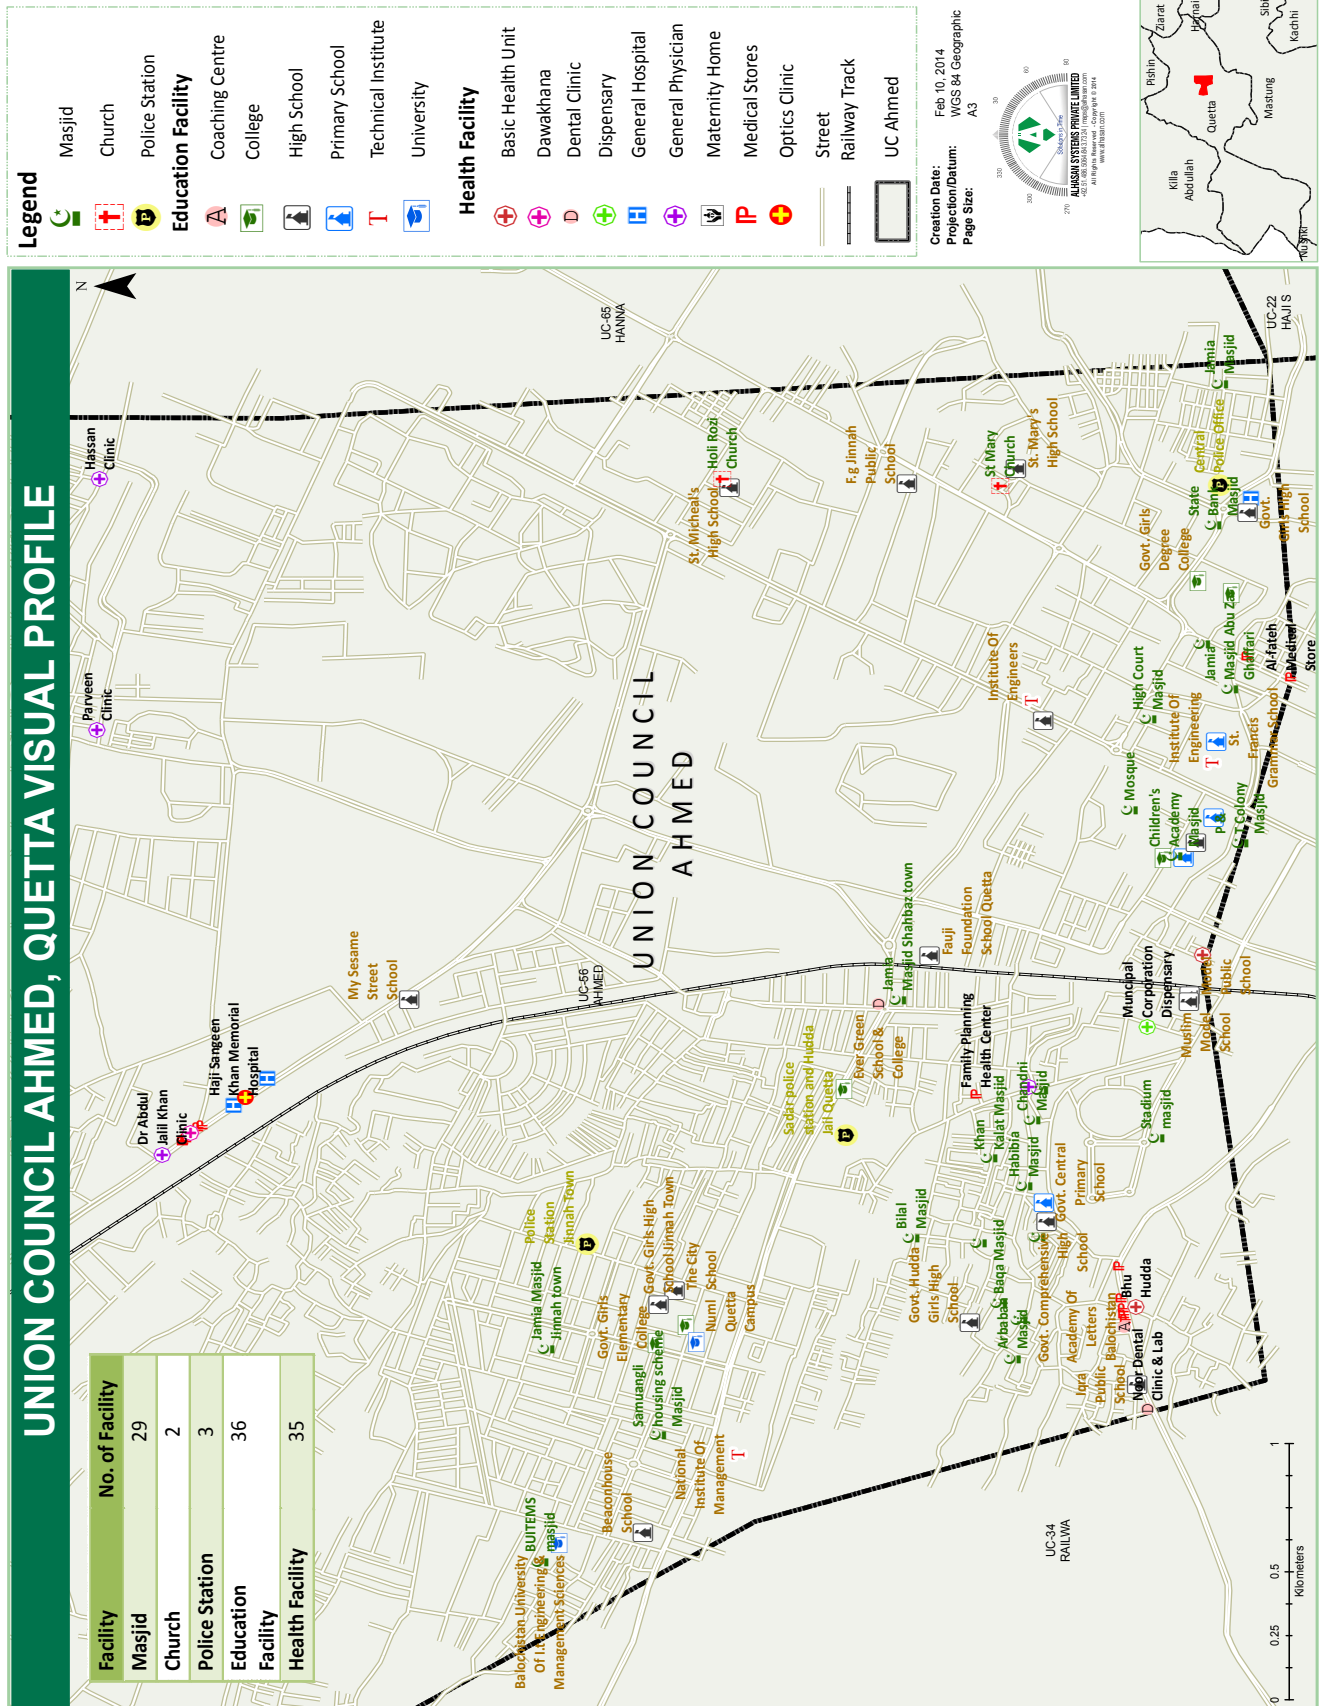

Meanwhile, with barely weeks left for the polls, the battle lines are being drawn. There are broadly four formations now that will be contesting the elections. One led by the BJP that is still looking for partners, left only with the Akali Dal in Punjab and the Shiv Sena (straining at the leash) in Maharashtra. The second led by the Congress that is still to stitch up alliances in the states, but is certainly going to lead a far smaller United Progressive Alliance than ever before, into the fray. The third is the alliance of the Left Front and the stronger regional parties in the country, that could become a potential factor provided the regional outfits perform well in the Lok Sabha elections.

And the fourth is the wild card, the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) that wants to contest 400 Lok Sabha seats; that still does not have the candidates; but seems to have the determination and the ability to make its aspirations work. The AAP is not in alliance with anyone, and nor will it be. It is clear that it wants to stand alone in the polls, before and possibly after. Its intention is to get at least 40 Lok Sabha seats that will make it the third largest party in parliament, and in position to determine the complexion of the next government.

Mega rallies are being held all across the country, with the BJP and the Congress clearly in the lead when it comes to money and more money. Both have launched a media blitz, and are said to be spending crores in just projecting their leadership, that translates into Narendra Modi for the BJP and Sonia and Rahul Gandhi for the Congress party. The others are lower key in their approach, working in the districts of their respective states that do not attract media attention.

It will be a fascinating election with all results up in the air. Perhaps, the only certainty is the near decimation of the Congress party in these parliamentary polls, but that will not mean that it will not have a say in the final formation at the centre. As for who will win and who will lose, at this stage, only the fools (and this clearly includes the pollsters) will dare to tread on ground that is so fluid.

سینٹ: آزاد کشمیر ضمنی الیکشن میں وفاق نے مداخلت کی، پیپلز پارٹی کا واک آؤٹ، کورم پورانہ ہونے پر اجلاس ملتوی

نوائے وقت

26th Feb, 2014

اسلام آباد (نامہ نگار + آئی این پی) سینٹ میں اپوزیشن پیپلز پارٹی نے آزاد کشمیر کے ضمنی انتخابات میں وفاقی حکومت کی مداخلت، دھاندلی اور اپنے دو کارکنوں کی ہلاکت پر شدید احتجاج کرتے ہوئے ایوان کی کارروائی کا بائیکاٹ کر دیا، اپوزیشن لیڈر اعتر از احسن نے چیئر مین سینٹ اور قائد ایوان کو مسلم لیگ (ن) آزاد کشمیر کے صدر فاروق حیدر کی وہ تصاویر دیں جن میں وہ کلاشکوف پکڑ کر پولیس کے ساتھ گھوم رہے ہیں، اعتر از احسن نے کہا وزارت امور کشمیر نے چیف سیکرٹری، آئی جی پولیس کے اور پنجاب ریجنل ڈپٹی کمشنر کے ذریعے آزاد کشمیر کے ضمنی انتخابات میں دھاندلی کرانی، ہمارے کارکنوں کے قتل کا مقدمہ چیف سیکرٹری اور آئی جی کے خلاف درج کیا جا رہا ہے نہ ان دونوں افسروں نے وزیراعظم آزاد کشمیر کے حکم کے باوجود اپنے عہدوں کا چارج چھوڑا ہے، راجہ فاروق حیدر کے خلاف اسلحہ لہرانے پر مقدمہ درج نہیں کیا گیا، نکتہ اعتراض پر اعتر از احسن نے کہا کچھ تصاویر قائد ایوان اور چیئر مین سینٹ کو دے رہا ہوں ان میں پاکستان مسلم لیگ آزاد کشمیر کے صدر فاروق حیدر کے ہاتھ میں کلاشکوف ہے اور ساتھ ریجنل ڈپٹی پولیس کھڑی ہے، یہ تصویر اس دن کی ہے جس دن ایل اے 22 آزاد کشمیر میں ضمنی انتخابات ہوئے جس میں ریجنل ڈپٹی پولیس کے بہت بڑی مداخلت کی گئی۔ پیپلز پارٹی کے دو جوہانوں کو شہید کیا گیا، پولیس وفاق کے اشراروں پر چل رہی ہے، آزاد کشمیر کی حکومت بے بس ہے۔ انہوں نے کہا ہم وقفہ سوالات کے بعد ایوان کی کارروائی کا احتجاجاً بائیکاٹ کریں گے، چیف سیکرٹری، آئی جی فاروق حیدر کے خلاف کارروائی کی جائے اور وزیر امور کشمیر کی مداخلت کو روکا جائے۔ وقفہ سوالات کے بعد قائد حزب اختلاف ایک بار پھر نکتہ اعتراض پر کھڑے ہوئے اور کہا پاکستان کی حکومت آزاد کشمیر کے معاملات میں مداخلت کر رہی ہے، وزیراعظم آزاد کشمیر نے ریجنل ڈپٹی پولیس بھجوانے کے لئے حکومت پاکستان اور چیف سیکرٹری کو خطوط لکھے لیکن چیف سیکرٹری نے ان کے احکامات پر عمل نہیں کیا۔ قائد ایوان راجہ ظفر الحق نے کہا کہ وفاقی وزیر امور کشمیر اس معاملے پر وضاحت کے لئے ایوان میں موجود ہیں لیکن قائد حزب اختلاف نے وفاقی وزیر امور کشمیر برہمیں طاہر کی بات سننے سے انکار کرتے ہوئے ایوان سے واک آؤٹ کر دیا۔ وزیر امور کشمیر برہمیں طاہر نے کہا کہ قائد حزب اختلاف کو میری بات سننی چاہئے تھی اس کے بعد وہ مطمئن نہ ہوئے تو بے شک واک آؤٹ کر دیتے۔ وفاقی وزیر کی بات جاری تھی کہ پیپلز پارٹی کے سینیٹر مختار عاجز دھامہ نے کورم کی نشاندہی کر دی جس پر چیئر مین نے گھنٹیں بجانے کی ہدایت کی۔ پانچ منٹ تک گھنٹیں بجانے کے بعد گنتی کی گئی تو کورم پورا نہ نکلا جس پر چیئر مین نے اجلاس (کل) جمعرات کی صبح ساڑھے دس بجے تک ملتوی کر دیا۔ قبل ازیں سینٹ میں قائد ایوان راجہ ظفر الحق نے قائد حزب اختلاف کے الزامات کو رد کرتے ہوئے کہا ہے مسلم لیگ (ن) کے صدر راجہ فاروق حیدر کو خطرہ تھا انہیں قتل کر دیا جائے گا اس لئے انہوں نے ہندو اپنے ہاتھ میں پکڑ رکھی تھی، آزاد کشمیر سے کرپشن اور ملازمتوں کی تقسیم سمیت بے شمار شکایات کے باوجود وزیراعظم ڈاکٹر نواز شریف نے آزاد کشمیر حکومت گرانے کی حمایت نہیں کی اور وزیراعظم آزاد کشمیر کو اپنا وزیراعظم قرار دیا، آزاد کشمیر میں 100 سے زائد ارکان کی گاریوں پر جھنڈے لگے ہوئے ہیں اور 84 فیصد بجٹ ان پر خرچ ہو رہا ہے، ہمارے انتخابی امیدوار کے بیلٹ باکس اٹھائے گئے اور پولنگ سٹیشنوں پر قبضے کئے گئے پھر بھی ہم نے مداخلت نہیں کی۔ انہوں نے کہا ضمنی انتخابات میں بیرسٹر سلطان محمود نے ہمیں اپروچ کیا اور کہا لوگوں کو ہماری طرف آنے سے کیوں روکا ہوا ہے؟ میں نے کہا وزیراعظم کی ہدایت ہے وہاں حکومت گرانے کی اجازت نہیں دی جائے گی، ہم نے کسی کے خلاف آزاد کشمیر میں مقدمات درج نہیں کرائے، راجہ فاروق حیدر نے اپنے قتل سے بچنے کے لئے ہندو اٹھائی اس بارے میں مزید تفصیلات حاصل کر کے ایوان کو آگاہ کریں گے۔

اسلام آباد (آن لائن) انتخابی عمل کو منوثر اور شفافیت کو یقینی بنانے کے لئے الیکشن کمیشن آف پاکستان کو چاہئے کہ وہ رائے دہندگان خصوصاً خواتین کی فہرستوں میں موجود تضادات کو دور کرنے، پولنگ سکیم کو بروقت حتمی شکل دینے اور انتخابی نتائج کو بہتر کرنے جیسے فوری اور منوثر اقدامات کرے۔ یہ بات جمعہ کو فری اینڈ فیئر الیکشن نیٹ ورک (فائن) کی طرف سے جاری کی گئی ایک رپورٹ میں کہی گئی۔ رپورٹ میں کہا گیا ہے کہ تشویش کی اہم ترین وجہ ملک میں کمپیوٹرائزڈ شناختی کارڈز کے اجراء میں بہتری کے باوجود 2013 کے عام انتخابات کے دوران قومی اسمبلی کے 100 حلقوں میں 2008 کے عام انتخابات کے مقابلے میں ٹرن آؤٹ کم رہا۔ انتخابات سے 2 ہفتے قبل پولنگ سکیم کو حتمی شکل دینا الیکشن کمیشن کی قانونی ذمہ داری ہے اور ریٹرننگ آفیسر اسے الیکشن کمیشن کی اجازت کے بغیر تبدیل نہیں کر سکتا۔ اور اگر اسے تبدیل کرے تو تمام متعلقہ اداروں کو بروقت آگاہ کرنا اس کی ذمہ داری ہوتی ہے۔ فائن کو اپنے تجزیے سے پتہ چلا ہے کہ قومی اسمبلی کے 93 حلقوں میں حتمی پولنگ سکیم اور انتخابی نتائج کی دستاویز میں 246,858 رائے دہندگان کا فرق ہے جو بہت بڑا تضاد ہے۔ ان 93 حلقوں میں سب سے زیادہ 57 حلقے پنجاب سے ہیں جہاں حتمی پولنگ سکیم اور انتخابی نتائج کے فارم میں درج رائے دہندگان کی تعداد میں تضاد پایا گیا جبکہ 16 حلقے خیبر پختونخوا، سندھ کے 15، فانا کے 4 اور اسلام آباد کا ایک حلقہ شامل ہیں۔ انتخابات کے فوراً بعد الیکشن کمیشن کو چاہئے کہ وہ انتخابی نتائج کے ساتھ ساتھ فارم 14، فارم 15، فارم 16 اور فارم 17 بھی جاری کرے تاکہ انتخابی عمل کی شفافیت یقینی بنائی جاسکے۔ اس عمل کی ضرورت اس امر سے بھی بڑھ جاتی ہے کہ حالیہ انتخابات کے بعد الیکشن کمیشن کی ویب سائٹ پر شائع کئے گئے فارم 17 پر مسٹر دووٹوں کی تعداد اور جیتنے والے امیدواروں کے سرکاری نتائج میں رجسٹرڈ ووٹروں کی تعداد درج نہیں۔ الیکشن کمیشن کو چاہئے کہ وہ ایسے انتخابی حکام جن کے مرتب کردہ نتائج میں تضادات ہیں انہیں ذمہ دار ٹھہرائے اور ان کے خلاف سخت اقدامات کرے تاکہ مستقبل میں انتخابات کے دوران ایسی بے قاعدگیوں سے بچا جاسکے۔ مسٹر دووٹوں کی تعداد 2002 میں 775,720، 2008 میں 973,694 تھی جبکہ 2013 میں 64

قومی اسمبلی: 93 حلقوں کی پولنگ سکیم، انتخابی نتائج کی دستاویز میں 2 لاکھ 46 ہزار ووٹروں کا فرق تھا: فائن

فیصد کے واضح اضافہ کے ساتھ زیر مشاہدہ 266 حلقوں میں مسٹر دووٹوں کی تعداد 1,502,717 تک جا پہنچی۔ رپورٹ کے مطابق قومی اسمبلی کے زیر مشاہدہ 266 حلقوں میں ٹرن آؤٹ کی شرح حوصلہ افزاء رہی۔ 266 حلقوں میں متوازی گنتی کے مطابق (0.03 فیصد کمی بیشی کے امکان کے ساتھ) شہری اور دیہی حلقوں کا مجموعی ٹرن آؤٹ 54.7 فیصد رہا۔ رپورٹ میں ٹرن آؤٹ کا شہری و دیہی تقابلی جائزہ لیتے ہوئے بتایا گیا ہے کہ 2008 کے انتخابات کے مقابلے میں شہری حلقوں کے ٹرن آؤٹ میں 17 فیصد کا واضح اضافہ ہوا۔ سندھ میں زیادہ تر نتائج گزشتہ انتخابات جیسے ہی رہے جہاں دیہی علاقوں میں پیپلز پارٹی کا پلہ بھاری رہا جبکہ شہری علاقوں خصوصاً گراجی میں متحدہ قومی موومنٹ نے اپنی اکثریت برقرار رکھی تاہم دوسرے تمام صوبوں میں واضح تبدیلی دیکھنے میں آئی۔ تبدیلی کی خواہش کا سب سے زیادہ فائدہ مسلم لیگ (ن) اور تحریک انصاف کو پنجاب اور خیبر پختونخوا میں ملا۔ بلوچستان میں پختون اور بلوچ قوم پرست جماعتوں نے ایک بار پھر جگہ بنائی۔ مذہبی جماعتوں میں جمعیت علمائے اسلام (ف) نے خیبر پختونخوا اور بلوچستان سے نمایاں نشستیں حاصل کیں۔ سندھ کے علاوہ انتخابات میں عوام کی طرف سے پیپلز پارٹی اور اس کی اتحادی جماعتوں کو عدم اعتماد کا سامنا کرنا پڑا۔ 2013 کے عام انتخابات میں 266 حلقوں میں 4462 امیدواروں نے حصہ لیا۔ سب سے زیادہ 230 حلقوں سے امیدوار تحریک انصاف نے کھڑے کئے جس کے بعد پیپلز پارٹی پارلیمنٹیرین کے 227 حلقوں میں امیدوار سامنے آئے۔ مسلم لیگ (ن) 215 امیدواروں کے ساتھ تیسرے اور متحدہ قومی موومنٹ 207 امیدواروں کے ساتھ چوتھے نمبر پر رہی۔ آزاد امیدواروں کی تعداد 2343 رہی جبکہ دیگر جماعتوں نے مجموعی طور پر 1240 امیدوار میدان میں اتارے۔ خواتین امیدواروں کی تعداد 161 رہی جو کہ 2002 اور 2008 کے انتخابات میں شریک خواتین امیدواروں سے واضح طور پر زیادہ تھی۔ پیپلز پارٹی پارلیمنٹیرین نے 15 خواتین کو ٹکٹ جاری کئے جبکہ متحدہ قومی موومنٹ نے 8، مسلم لیگ (ن) 7، تحریک انصاف 6 اور پاکستان مسلم لیگ نے 2 خواتین کو ٹکٹ جاری کئے۔ رپورٹ کے مطابق گزشتہ عام انتخابات کے دوران پورے ملک میں 15 لاکھ ووٹ مسٹر دے گئے، 35 حلقوں میں مسٹر د شدہ ووٹوں کی تعداد جیتنے والے امیدوار کے درمیان فرق سے بھی زیادہ تھی۔ 35 حلقوں میں مسٹر دووٹوں کی تعداد ہارنے اور جیتنے والے امیدواروں کے ووٹوں کے فرق سے بھی زیادہ رہی تاہم راولپنڈی سے قومی اسمبلی کے حلقے این اے 53 میں کوئی ووٹ مسٹر د نہیں ہوا۔ 15 لاکھ سے زائد ووٹر گھروں سے نکلے۔ ووٹ بھی ڈالا، لیکن ضائع کر دیا۔ ایسا نہ ہوتا تو قومی اسمبلی کی 35 نشستوں کے نتائج بدل سکتے تھے۔ رپورٹ کے مطابق این اے 53 راولپنڈی میں کوئی ووٹ مسٹر د نہیں ہوا۔ دوسری جانب بلوچستان کے حلقے این اے 266 میں 25 ہزار 9 سو سے زائد ووٹ مسٹر د ہو گئے۔

اسلام آباد (نمائندہ نوائے وقت + ایجنسیاں) سپریم کورٹ نے حلقہ بندیوں سے متعلق سندھ ہائی کورٹ کے فیصلے کے خلاف ایپلوں پر فیصلہ محفوظ کر لیا، چیف جسٹس صدیق حسین جیلانی نے کہا ہے کہ لوگوں کو حلقہ بندیوں پر اعتماد نہیں تو انتخابات کیسے شفاف ہوں گے، کوئی ادارہ اپنے اختیارات سے تجاوز کرے تو عدالت کو مداخلت کا اختیار ہے۔ اگر بلدیاتی نظام سے الیکشن کمیشن مفلوج ہو تو پھر کیا کرنا چاہئے، بلدیاتی نظام میں خامیاں ہیں تو عدالت کو کیا کرنا چاہئے کیا ہاتھ پر ہاتھ دھرے انتظار کرنا ہو گا کہ انتخابات میں جو مرضی ہو تا رہے، صوبوں کو آئینی خود مختاری دیتے ہوئے یہ بھی مد نظر رکھا گیا تھا کہ وہ آئینی کمانڈ کی پابندی کریں گے۔ انتخابات کا انعقاد الیکشن کمیشن کی ذمہ داری ہے۔ صرف بیٹاق جمہوریت کی شق 10 کے تحت بلدیاتی انتخابات صوبائی الیکشن کمیشن نے کرنا تھے۔ سیاسی رہنماؤں نے 18 ویں ترمیم میں مثبت قلابازی لگائی۔ 18 ویں ترمیم میں بلدیاتی انتخابات کا انعقاد الیکشن کمیشن کو دے دیا گیا، صوبے بلدیاتی قوانین کے ذریعے الیکشن کمیشن کو حلقہ بندیوں کے اختیار سے کیوں محروم کر رہے ہیں، عدالت نے یہ دیکھا ہے کہ بلدیاتی قوانین میں شامل حلقہ بندیوں کی دفعات آئینی کمانڈ سے مماثلت رکھتی ہے یا برعکس ہے جسٹس عظمت سعید نے کہا کہ صوبائی حکومت کو مرضی کی حلقہ بندیوں کی اجازت کیسے دی جاسکتی ہے۔ ایک آرٹیکل کو بچاتے ہوئے ملک ہی ٹوٹ گیا تھا کہیں بلدیاتی انتخابات کا میچ فکس تو نہیں۔ چیف جسٹس نے کہا کہ اگر حکومت حاصل اختیارات کا درست استعمال نہ کرے تو عدالت کو مداخلت کا اختیار حاصل ہے، اگر حد بندیاں کرنے والا ادارہ جانبدار ہو تو شفاف الیکشن کیسے ہو سکتے ہیں۔ ایڈووکیٹ جنرل پنجاب نے عدالت کو بتایا کہ انہوں نے حکومت سے ہدایات حاصل کر لی ہیں جس کا کہنا ہے کہ عدالت کیس میں جو بھی گائیڈ لائن جاری کرے گی حکومت اس کے مطابق قانون سازی کرے گی، عدالت نے کہا کہ یہ آپ تحریری طور پر عدالت میں جمع کرادیں۔ اٹارنی جنرل سلمان بٹ نے کہا کہ بلدیاتی انتخابات کی حلقہ بندیوں کا اختیار صوبائی حکومت کا ہے۔ عدالتی معاون خواجہ حارث سے عدالت نے استفسار کیا کہ کیا 1974 کا حلقہ بندی ایکٹ بلدیاتی حکومتوں پر بھی لاگو ہوتا ہے تو انہوں نے کہا کہ الیکشن کمیشن کو یہ اختیار حاصل ہے کہ جس معاملے میں آئین خاموش ہو تو وہ اختیارات استعمال کر سکتا ہے اور یہ بات ورکرز پارٹی کیس میں واضح کر دی گئی ہے۔ اٹارنی جنرل نے کہا کہ قانون بنانا صوبائی حکومت کا اختیار ہے جس پر جسٹس شیخ عظمت سعید نے کہا کہ چاہے وہ حد بندیوں میں جتنی چاہے جھاڑو پھیر دے۔ سندھ حکومت کے وکیل فاروق ایچ نائیک نے کہا کہ 18 ویں ترمیم کا مقصد صوبوں کو خود مختاری دینا تھا اسی وجہ سے آرٹیکل 140 آئین میں شامل کیا گیا اور بلدیاتی سسٹم فراہم کرنے کا اختیار صوبوں کو دیا گیا، سسٹم فراہم کرنا الیکشن کمیشن کا اختیار نہیں اور حد بندیاں اس سسٹم کا حصہ ہیں۔ الیکشن کمیشن کو صرف الیکشن کرنے کا اختیار دیا گیا ہے تاکہ شفاف الیکشن کا انعقاد ممکن ہو سکے۔ اٹھارہویں ترمیم کا بنیادی مقصد صوبائی خود مختاری، مالی، انتظامی اور سیاسی اختیارات کو چٹائی سطح پر منتقل کرنا تھا۔ فاروق نائیک نے کہا کہ قوانین صوبائی حکومت نے فراہم کرنے ہیں۔ چیف جسٹس نے کہا کہ آئین ایک زندہ دستاویز ہے جس کی تشریح عدالت کا اختیار ہے۔ جسٹس عظمت سعید نے ریمارکس دیئے کہ مقصد نظر آ رہا ہے کہ انتخابات کے التواء کا بہانہ مل جائے۔ کہیں بلدیاتی انتخابات کا میچ فکس تو نہیں۔ جسٹس خلی

صوبے بلدیاتی قوانین کے ذریعے الیکشن کمیشن کو حلقہ بندیوں کے اختیار سے کیوں محروم رہے ہیں: سپریم کورٹ نوائے وقت

اسلام آباد (ثناء نیوز) سپریم کورٹ نے حکومت کو ایک ماہ میں چیف الیکشن کمشنر کا تقرر کرنے کا حکم دیا ہے۔ عدالت نے قرار دیا کہ سربراہ نہ ہونے کے باعث کئی ادارے غیر فعال ہو چکے ہیں ایک ماہ میں چیف الیکشن کمشنر کا تقرر نہ کیا گیا تو پھر عدالت حکم جاری کرے گی جبکہ جسٹس میاں ثاقب نثار نے کہا ہے کہ سپریم کورٹ میں ڈھیروں کیس زیر التوا ہیں اس کے جج کو قائم مقام لگادیا جاتا ہے حکومت حاضر سرورس جج کو قائم مقام بنا کر خاموش ہو جاتی ہے حکومت چیف الیکشن کمشنر کے تقرر کے حوالہ سے اپنی ذمہ داری پوری کرے۔ جسٹس میاں ثاقب نثار کی سربراہی میں دور کئی بیچنے آئی ایس آئی کے ایک ملازم کی بحالی کے حوالہ سے کیس کی سماعت کی اس دوران یہ بات سامنے آئی کہ فیڈرل سروسز ٹریبونل کا سربراہ نہ ہونے کے باعث اس اہلکار کو وہاں سے ریلیف نہیں مل سکا۔ اس پر جسٹس ثاقب نثار نے برہمی کا اظہار کیا اور انٹرنی جزل سلمان اسلم بٹ سے پوچھا کہ کتنے ایسے ادارے ہیں جن کے سربراہان نہیں ہیں۔ ان کا کہنا تھا کہ ہماری معلومات کے مطابق بہت سے ادارے سربراہان کے بغیر کام کر رہے ہیں بلکہ وہ غیر فعال ہو چکے ہیں۔ ان کا کہنا تھا کہ چیف الیکشن کمشنر کے نہ ہونے کی وجہ سے وہاں ایک فاضل جج کو ذمہ داری نبھانا پڑ رہی ہے۔ عدالت نے انٹرنی جزل کو ہدایت کی کہ وہ حکومت کو یہ پیغام پہنچائیں کہ ایک مہینے کے اندر اندر چیف الیکشن کمشنر کی تقرری کے حوالہ سے اپنی آئینی ذمہ داری پوری کرے اگر ایسا نہ ہو تو پھر ممکن ہے کہ عدالت کو مجبوراً کوئی حکم جاری کرنا پڑے۔ جسٹس ثاقب نثار کا کہنا تھا کہ ایسے آئینی ادارے جو بغیر سربراہان کے چل رہے ہیں انٹرنی جزل ان کے حوالہ سے انہیں رپورٹ پیش کریں۔ عدالت نے انٹرنی جزل کو ہدایت کی کہ وہ چار مارچ تک اپنی رپورٹ پیش کریں جبکہ عدالت نے آئی ایس آئی کے افسر کی بحالی کے کیس کی مزید سماعت چار اپریل تک ملتوی کر دی

اسلام آباد (ایجنسیاں) قومی اسمبلی کی قائمہ کمیٹی برائے پارلیمانی امور کے اجلاس میں 35 پیگجروں کے تذکرے سے دلچسپ صورتحال پیدا ہو گئی۔ سیکرٹری الیکشن کمیشن ارکان اسمبلی اور کمیٹی کے چیئرمین کے درمیان دلچسپ جملوں کا تبادلہ ہوا۔ منگل کو قائمہ کمیٹی برائے پارلیمانی امور کا اجلاس کمیٹی کے چیئرمین میاں عبدالمنان کی زیر صدارت ہوا۔ اجلاس میں کمیٹی کے ارکان سمیت سیکرٹری الیکشن کمیشن اور دیگر متعلقہ اداروں کے اعلیٰ افسران نے شرکت کی۔ ارکان نے مطالبہ کیا کہ 35 پیگجروں کے حوالے سے صورتحال واضح ہونی چاہئے۔ سیکرٹری الیکشن کمیشن احمد نے کہا کہ جنہوں نے الزام عائد کیا ہے وہی وضاحت کر سکتے ہیں کہ کون پیگجر ہوا ہے۔ کمیٹی کے چیئرمین میاں عبدالمنان نے کہا کہ ہم انتخابات جیت کر آئے ہیں کوئی پیگجروں کی دکان نہیں کھولی۔ اس پر اجلاس میں قبچہہ بلند ہوا۔ قائمہ کمیٹی برائے پارلیمانی امور نے سفارش کی کہ جن پولنگ سٹیشنز پر خواتین کے ووٹ ڈالنے پر پابندی ہوگی، انکے نتائج تسلیم نہ کئے جائیں اور امیدواروں کو نااہل قرار دیا جائے۔ کمیٹی نے مزید کہا کہ انتخابات عدلیہ کے نہیں الیکشن کمیشن کے زیر نگرانی قابل قبول ہیں، شفاف انتخابات کے انعقاد کیلئے ہر ممکن اقدامات اٹھائے جائیں، قانون سازی کیلئے ہر ممکن تعاون کریں گے۔ ریٹرننگ آفیسرز کو غیر متعلقہ اور ذاتی سوالات سے روکنے کے ساتھ امیدواروں کی تفتیک سے گریز کیا جائے۔ کمیٹی نے ای ووٹنگ سسٹم، الیکٹرانک ووٹنگ مشین اور بائیو میٹرک ڈیوائس کے استعمال پر تمام سیاسی جماعتوں کے سربراہوں سے مشاورت کیلئے الگ اجلاس بھی طلب کر لیا جبکہ سیکرٹری الیکشن کمیشن احمد خان نے کہا کہ ”35 پیگجرز“ کے معاملے پر کارروائی نہیں کر سکتے، الیکشن کمیشن کا اختیار صرف 60 دن کا ہے، پارلیمنٹ چاہے تو مدت 400 دن کر سکتی ہے، 2 سال میں الیکٹرانک ووٹنگ مشین قابل عمل بنالیں گے، 2016ء کے بعد ملک بھر میں انتخابات الیکٹرانک ووٹنگ مشین کے ذریعے کرائے جائیں گے، بارہا قانون سازی کا مطالبہ کیا مگر سابق پارلیمنٹ میں توجہ نہ دی گئی، سیاسی جماعتوں کے مطالبے پر عدلیہ سے انتخابات کرائے تھے۔ سیکرٹری الیکشن کمیشن احمد خان نے کمیٹی کو بریفنگ دیتے ہوئے کہا ملک میں انتخابات الیکٹرانک مشین کے ذریعے کرائے کیلئے قانون سازی کی ضرورت ہے۔ انہوں نے کہا کہ الیکٹرانک ووٹنگ مشین کے ذریعے دھاندلی کی شکایات میں کمی، ووٹوں کی گنتی میں آسانی، ٹرن آؤٹ میں اضافے سمیت دیگر معاملات میں بہتری آئیگی جس پر چیئرمین کمیٹی میاں عبدالمنان نے کہا کہ وزیراعظم نے خصوصی پیغام کے ذریعے باور کرایا ہے کہ آئندہ انتخابات کو شفاف بنانے کیلئے جدید ٹیکنالوجی کا استعمال کیا جائے۔ چیئرمین نے کہا کہ الیکٹرانک ووٹنگ مشین کی قانون سازی کیلئے جلد قومی اسمبلی میں بل پیش کیا جائیگا۔ سیکرٹری الیکشن کمیشن نے تجویز پیش کی کہ عورتوں کے ووٹ کو یقینی بنانے کیلئے قانون سازی کی جائے اور اس امر کو یقینی بنایا جائے کہ ہر پولنگ سٹیشن پر 10 سے 15 فیصد ووٹ خواتین کے لازم پول ہونے چاہئیں۔ اراکین کمیٹی نے 2013ء کے عام انتخابات کے دوران ریٹرننگ آفیسرز کے رویوں کو غیر مناسب اور ناشائستہ قرار دیتے ہوئے کہا کہ غیر متعلقہ سوالات پوچھ کر امیدواروں کی تفتیک کی گئی، ہماری تجویز ہے کہ آئندہ انتخابات میں عدلیہ کی بجائے الیکشن کمیشن کے زیر اہتمام کرائے جائیں اور اس حوالے سے الیکشن کمیشن کو 500 سے 1000 سٹاف بھی درکار ہو تو اسے فراہم کیا جائے۔ اجلاس میں ایک موقع پر چیئرمین کمیٹی میاں عبدالمنان بھی پھٹ پڑے اور کہا کہ ذاتی سوالات یا آیات کریمہ سننے کا اختیار کس طرح ریٹرننگ آفیسرز کو دیدیا گیا ہے جس پر سیکرٹری الیکشن کمیشن

لاہور (وفاقی ہنگامہ خصوصی) پنجاب حکومت نے بلدیاتی امیدواروں پر آرٹیکل 62 اور 63 کے اطلاق کے حوالہ سے دائر درخواست پر اپنا جواب لاہور ہائی کورٹ میں جمع کروا دیا ہے جس میں موقف اختیار کیا گیا ہے کہ لوکل گورنمنٹ ایکٹ کے تحت جعلی ڈگری والے اور توہین عدالت کے مجرم بھی انتخابات میں حصہ لے سکتے ہیں، ان کے انتخاب میں حصہ لینے پر کوئی پابندی نہیں۔ عدالت نے کیس میں نیب، ایف آئی اے اور ایف بی آر حکام سے 17 مارچ کو جواب طلب کر لیا ہے جبکہ وفاقی حکومت کے جواب داخل نہ کرانے پر عدالت نے اظہار برہمی کیا ہے، پنجاب حکومت نے کیس میں اپنا جواب داخل کرتے ہوئے کہا ہے کہ لوکل گورنمنٹ ایکٹ کے تحت توہین عدالت کے مرتکب اور جعلی ڈگری والوں کے الیکشن میں حصہ لینے پر کوئی پابندی نہیں۔ عدالت نے ایف بی آر، نیب اور ایف آئی اے حکام سے آرٹیکل 62 اور 63 کے بلدیاتی امیدواروں پر اطلاق کے حوالہ سے جواب طلب کرتے ہوئے کیس کی مزید سماعت 17 مارچ تک ملتوی کر دی۔

سیکرٹری الیکشن کمشن، سپریم کورٹ نے

اسلام آباد (اے این این) سپریم کورٹ نے تحریک انصاف کی درخواست پر عام انتخابات میں عملے کی غیر متوازن تعیناتی سے متعلق الیکشن کمیشن کے جواب پر برہمی کا اظہار کرتے ہوئے انتخابی عملے میں وفاق اور صوبائی ملازمین کی شرح سے متعلق تحریری جواب طلب کر لیا ہے۔ الیکشن ٹریبونل نے کہا ہے کہ تحریک انصاف اپنی مرضی کی رپورٹ لینا چاہتی ہے دھاندلی سے متعلق کوئی ثبوت دیا گیا نہ گواہ پیش کیا گیا جبکہ جسٹس شیخ عظیمت سعید نے ریمارکس دیئے ہیں کہ دھاندلی پورے ملک میں ہوئی ہے تو درخواست صرف چار حلقوں کیلئے دی گئی ہے۔ جسٹس صدیق حسین جیلانی کی سربراہی میں تین رکنی بنچ نے چار حلقوں میں دھاندلی کے خلاف درخواست کی سماعت کی۔ این اے 125 لاہور اور این اے 154 لودھراں کے بارے میں الیکشن ٹریبونل کا جواب پڑھ کر سنایا گیا جس میں کہا گیا ہے کہ تحریک انصاف کے امیدوار حامد خان اپنی مرضی سے رپورٹ لینا چاہتے ہیں، الیکشن ٹریبونل کے سامنے نہ گواہ پیش کیے گئے، نہ ہی دھاندلی کے کوئی ثبوت دیئے گئے۔ تحریک انصاف صرف نادرا سے انگوٹھوں کی تصدیق پر اصرار کر رہی ہے، اسی وجہ سے انگوٹھوں کی تصدیق کا عمل آگے نہیں بڑھ سکا۔ تحریک انصاف کے وکیل نے ہی معاملہ نئے الیکشن ٹریبونل بھیجنے کی درخواست کی۔ حامد خان نے بتایا کہ ہم نے کسی ایک حلقے میں نہیں، پورے ملک میں انتخابی دھاندلی کی نشاندہی کی۔ الیکشن ٹریبونل کے جج معاملہ نمٹانا نہیں چاہتے تھے، پٹیشن کسی دوسرے ٹریبونل کو بھجوانے کی درخواست دی تھی، جسٹس عظیمت سعید نے کہا کہ آپ کو الیکشن ٹریبونل کے سامنے دھاندلی کے ثبوت رکھنے چاہئے تھے، اگر دھاندلی پورے ملک میں ہوئی ہے تو صرف چار حلقوں میں تحقیقات کی درخواست کیوں دی گئی ہے؟ حامد خان نے کہا کہ چار حلقے صرف مثال کے طور پر پیش کیے، ہم عدالت کو وسیع پیمانے پر دھاندلی کی نشاندہی کرنا چاہتے ہیں ہم سپریم کورٹ اس لیے آئے ہیں تاکہ دھاندلی کا معاملہ سامنے آسکے۔ اس موقع پر حامد خان نے الیکشن ٹریبونل کی ایک رپورٹ پڑھی جس کے مطابق انتخابات کے دوران بعض مقامات پر الیکشن کمشن کا عملہ موجود نہیں تھا، عدالت کے بلانے پر سیکرٹری الیکشن کمشن اشتیاق احمد خان نے بتایا کہ الیکشن کمشن کی کوشش تھی کہ انتخابی عملے کی تعیناتی میں وفاق و صوبائی حکومت کے اہلکار شامل ہوں۔ وفاقی حکومت کی جانب سے ملازمین کی عدم دستیابی کے باعث انتخابی عملے کی تعیناتی غیر متوازن ہوئی، سیکرٹری الیکشن کمشن اشتیاق احمد نے بتایا کہ وفاق ملازمین کی زیادہ تعداد دستیاب نہیں تھی، اس لئے صوبائی ملازمین نسبتاً زیادہ تعداد میں انتخابی ڈیوٹی پر مامور تھے۔ ریٹرننگ افسر اس بات کا تعین کرتے ہیں کہ پولنگ عملہ کون ہوگا۔ چیف جسٹس نے کہا کہ پہلے الیکشن کمشن ریٹرننگ افسر کو فہرست بھیجتا ہے۔ اشتیاق احمد نے بتایا کہ اس فہرست کی بنیاد پر اور اپنی صوابدید پر تعیناتیاں کرتے ہیں۔ انتخابی عملے کے لئے وفاق اور صوبائی ملازمین کی تعیناتی کی شرح مخصوص نہیں ہے۔ عدالت نے الیکشن کمشن کے جواب پر برہمی کا اظہار کرتے ہوئے اٹارنی جنرل کوٹس جاری کرتے ہوئے الیکشن کمشن سے بھی جواب طلب کر لیا۔ چیف جسٹس نے ریمارکس دیئے کہ انتخابی عملے کی تعیناتی قواعد کے مطابق ہونی چاہئے۔ اس حوالے سے الیکشن کمشن کا جواب تسلی بخش نہیں ہے۔

لاہور (خبرنگار) پنجاب اسمبلی میں پیپلز پارٹی کے پارلیمانی لیڈر قاضی احمد سعید نے کہا ہے کہ پنجاب میں بلدیاتی انتخابات کا اتنا بھی دھاندلی کے مترادف ہے۔ پنجاب حکومت ضلعی حکومتوں کے پیسے پنجاب کے اراکین قومی و صوبائی اسمبلی کو نوازنے کے لئے استعمال کر رہی ہے، انہوں نے کہا کہ پنجاب میں دہشت گردی، لاقانونیت، مہنگائی اور فرقہ واریت اپنے عروج پر ہے۔ حکمرانوں نے ملک و قوم کے مفادات کو پس پشت ڈال دیا ہے۔ موسم سرما میں بھی لوڈ شیڈنگ اپنے عروج پر ہے۔ پیپلز پارٹی کے دور میں ایسی مثال نہیں ملتی۔ انہوں نے کہا کہ بلاول بھٹو زرداری عملی سیاست میں تمام سیاست دانوں سے بہتر اور فعال کردار ادا کر رہے ہیں۔

قانونی ذمہ داری ہے اس میں مزید تاخیر کی اجازت نہیں دے سکتے، بلدیاتی انتخابات کے انعقاد میں تاخیر کرنا قانون کی خلاف ورزی ہے جس کے نتائج اچھے نہیں ہوں گے، حکومت نے کہا تھا کہ قانون سازی کر رہے ہیں مگر وہ بھی ابھی تک نہیں کی جاسکی۔ عوام کو ان کے حقوق سے زیادہ دیر تک محروم نہیں رکھا جاسکتا، حکومت بتائے کہ بلدیاتی انتخابات کب کرائے گی۔ کئو نمٹ بورڈز میں بلدیاتی انتخابات کرنا وفاقی حکومت کی ذمہ داری ہے اسی وجہ سے سیکرٹری دفاع بخلاف توہین عدالت کا کیس بھی چل رہا ہے، حد ہو گئی، 1998ء سے اب تک کئو نمٹ بورڈز میں بلدیاتی انتخابات نہیں کرائے گئے، اگر حکومت ترمیم نہیں کر سکتی تو ہم پرانے اور موجودہ قوانین کے تحت بلدیاتی انتخابات کرانے کا حکم دے دیں گے اور جب ترمیم ہو جائے گی تو پھر اس ترمیم شدہ قانون کے تحت از سر نو انتخابات کرا دیں گے، ہم نے جس حد تک ہو سکا حکومتی ترمیم کا انتظار کیا ہے اور اب مزید تاخیر نہیں ہونے دیں گے، یہ قانونی تقاضا ہے کہ حکومت کئو نمٹ بورڈز میں انتخابات کرائے۔ چیف جسٹس نے کہا وفاقی حکومت سے متعلقہ معاملہ ہے، ترمیم کی وجہ سے معاملہ تاخیر کا شکار تھا۔ ہم تاخیر کی اجازت نہیں دے سکتے۔ آٹھ سال سے کوئی الیکشن نہیں ہوا۔ جس وقت نیا قانون آئے گا تو پھر آپ تازہ انتخابات کرا سکتے ہیں۔
